PH joins coconut planting to boost farm productivity

Manila – Coconut farmers, government agencies, local government units and industry partners across the country joined a recent massive simultaneous coconut-planting activity targeting millions of seedling to mark the 40th national coconut week.

In a news release the Department of Agriculture - Philippine Coconut Authority (DA-PCA) ^{said} the nationwide initiative forms part of ^{part} continuing efforts to ^{strengthen} ~~weaken~~ the country's coconut resource base, ^{improve} ~~lower~~ farm productivity and secure better opportunities for Filipino coconut farmers.

"every new seedling represents more than a future ~~coconut~~ ^{three}. It represents the possibility of future harvests, additional farm income, improved productivity, and renewed opportunities for coconut-growing communities," the DA-PCA said.

The initiative supports the broader goals of the Coconut Farmers and Industry Development Plan (CFIDP), which provides targeted interventions to ^{improve} ~~lower~~ NoPcoconut productivity, ^{increase} ~~decrease~~ farmers' earnings and ensure the long-term sustainability of the sector.

However, DepEd said it is working with the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) to harmonize the PES modules with the Kaagapay Program.
