

Glow, Mama!
Herni F. Hastutie
Sarah Velisa R.

Today is Mama's birthday.
Mo wants to give her a special gift.
He wishes to see Mama glow.

The rain is pouring.
Poor Mama! She must be cold.
Ah, Mo has an idea!

Mo decorates some old socks.
Hopefully, this will make Mama glow brightly.

But Mama still does not glow.
Mo will find another gift for her.

Oh no, Mama's soup ladle is broken.
Mo has an idea!

He ties a purple ribbon on the ladle.
Purple is Mama's favorite color.

But Mama doesn't glow yet.
She is too busy.

Mama decorates the birthday cake.
Look at her face! There's icing on it.
Wait, Mama!

Here's another gift from Mo.
A beautiful handkerchief for Mama.
Please glow, Mama!

Mo has given Mama so many gifts.
But she still doesn't glow.
The birthday cake is ready.
Blow out the candles, Mama!

Mo loves his Mama.
He wants her to live a long and happy life.

Hooray!
Finally, Mama glows.

Happy birthday, Mama!

The Litara Foundation was established in 2014. It aims to improve the literacy skills of Indonesian children. The founders and activists of Litara consist of teachers, writers, illustrators, editors, translators, academics, practitioners, and education consultants. Litara's work includes developing and publishing quality books, training and assisting teachers and communities for literacy activities in schools and Community Reading Gardens, creating literacy and numeracy modules for teachers, training writers and illustrators, donating books, conducting research on children's literacy, and building partnerships or strategic collaborations.

KIBA (Kelas Ilustrasi dan Desain Buku Anak) under the DKV Study Program of FSRD ITB is a course aimed at facilitating knowledge, research, workshops, and collaborations to improve the quality of illustrations in children's books, particularly in Indonesia.
