

Rep. Romulo clarifies zero budget teachers not final

Representative Roman Romulo explained to the public that the zero budget of teachers is not final because the Filipino childrens needs them to learn.

In his interview, ~~the~~ Representative shared that the congress urged the Department of Education (DepEd) teachers budget. ~~not the agency~~ to give the "hindi pa naman final pa in fact na may tinupad ang DepEd na wishlist upang iconsidera ng house at ang Senado," Roman stated.

Romulo said that the teachers should not have zero budget in 2027.

Roman emphasized that the congress has gave the new hired teachers 1,000 in 2025.

Representative stressed the should see that the teachers should have budget because the DepEd have Fund in 2026. ~~##~~

Rep. Romulo React for the zero budget for hiring teacher in 2027 is still not final

Rep. Romulo reacted for zero budget for hiring new teacher for 2027 is still not the final

Rep. Romulo reacted for zero budget for hiring new teacher for 2027 is still not the final.

According to Rep. Romulo that the congress give 10 thousand new hire for teacher Rep. Romulo said that the congress even give budget for teacher because the teacher should not have zero budget

Rep. Romulo said that the teacher really fill the position that he checked the budget for teacher that it really should not be zero budget for teachers because we really have a career progression to hire more teachers

Dep Ed allocates 32,000 teacher positions to schools last year

Department of Education allotted 32,000 position to teachers to fill up the given services that may be unused in 2027

During the interview, Representative Roman Romulo said from the 32,000 teacher positions zero were filled up this shows it's expected that a small amount of teachers will be hired at the time 2027.

"Yun yung hindi pa final yan nang-yari po yung this year binigay position as 32,000 wala pang haka filled up dito hindi po pwede zero yan kasi kailangan nating ang mga guro" Rep. Romulo stated.

He emphasized Dep Ed funded 30,000 position in 2025, moving on to the present 2026 32,000 positions need to be filled up.

"30,000 teachers pinunduhan pero ang teacher position yung 2025 napuno nila yun 2026 kailangan ma fill up ang 32,000" Rep. Romulo uttered.

Rep. Roman Romulo Gives His Explanation Behind The 2027 Zero Budget For The New Hiring Teachers in the Department Of Education

In an interview, Rep. Roman Romulo was questioned about the zero budget for the New hiring teachers in the Department Of Education (DepEd).

Rep. Roman Romulo spoke about how the budget was not finalized due the House of Congress and Senate not considering it yet.

According to Rep. Roman Romulo's explanation and statement, more less than 32,000 new teacher hiring positions were assigned.

The possible increase in budget of the new hiring teachers is possible, stated by Rep. Roman Romulo.

Rep. Romulo answered that they are still waiting to hear DepEd's comment about the crisis.

"Hindi pa yam final." Rep. Roman Romulo said, as many questions by the interviewer were asked.

The finalized budget of the 2027 New Hiring Teachers, require consideration of the Department of Education and House of Senate and Congress.

Rep. Romulo answers zero DepED budget in this 2027 teachers

Congressman Roman Romulo answered the zero DepED budget in this new 2027 teachers to clarify the DepED budgets at 105.9 true FM, ted filon and DJ chacha.

According on Romulo this information is not sure that is true, and ~~there~~ onto him there was ₱32,000 unit positions on DepED already.

"Net palang tan maghihintay palang tayo sa DepED kung ano ang kanilang masasabi..." Romulo said in his interview.

On his interview He said that the teachers improving to master one, two, three, four had a separated budget for this coming 2027- teachers.

He also said that all of these information is not final and important to ours, and not sure of these all information and still waiting to the DepED's own information.